

IDEC, Greece

IDEC organised an online seminar for the multiplier event which hosted 20 keynote speakers and almost 80 participants on the 13th of July, 2022. The event provided an opportunity for discussion about the uptake of innovation and innovative practices throughout the Greek market, including the representatives of the business world at the Greek national level. Cases and practices of innovation in Greece were shared to serve as an example or benchmark for organizations and participants. The role of innovation and educational practices were highlighted through the intellectual outputs.

